Building a collection makes you the custodian, as much as the owner.

We understand the responsibility that artwork brings and we recognise that protecting your collection is more important than recompense. That's why we've created advice on:

- + Conservation and restoration
- + Climatic conditions
- + Preventing water, fire and burglary
- + Packing
- + Fine art storage warehousing
- + Transporting and displaying an artwork

You can find this advice on our website at rossborough.co.uk/art

This can prevent claims, but when that need arises your insurance should be as individual as your collection. We've created a suite of high value policies which offer cover that's bespoke to you. Your collection isn't standard so don't settle for standard insurance.

Don't settle for a standard claims service either. When things go wrong, our policies have a claims service you'll love - it's certainly not standard.
