1. About us ►

In this Privacy Policy references to "we" or "us" or "Rossborough" are to Rossborough Insurance (IOM) Limited. We are an insurance intermediary and part of the Arthur J. Gallagher group of companies.

In order to provide our services, we will collect and use data about individuals. This means that we are a 'data controller' and we are responsible for complying with data protection laws.

We have appointed a data protection officer to oversee our handling of personal information. If you have any questions about how we collect, store or use your personal information, you may contact our Data Protection Officer using the details set out in the "Contacting Us" section.

2. About the insurance market ►

The personal information that we collect and process will be shared with other participants in the insurance market, some of which you will not have direct contact with. You can identify relevant data controllers through the insurance market life-cycle in the following ways:

- Where you took out the insurance policy yourself: intermediaries such as Rossborough will be the initial data controller. The insurer will also be a data controller. Rossborough's Data Protection Officer can advise you of the identities of other insurance market participants that have been provided with your personal data.
- Where your employer or another organisation took out the policy for your benefit: you should contact your employer or the organisation that took out the policy who should provide you with details of intermediaries such as Rossborough that they provided your personal data to. Rossborough's Data Protection Officer can advise you of the identities of other insurance market participants that have been provided with your personal data.
- Where you are not a policyholder or an insured: you should contact the organisation that collected your personal data who should provide you with details of the relevant data protection contact.

3. Our processing of your personal information ►

The personal information that we collect will depend on our relationship with you. Please click on the section below that best describes your relationship with us. For example, we will collect more detailed information about you if you are a customer than we would if you simply made an enquiry about the services that we offer.

There may also be circumstances where exercising some of these rights (such as the right to erasure, the right to restriction of processing and the right to withdraw consent) will mean your insurance can no longer be provided and it may therefore result in cancellation of your policy. You will therefore lose the right to bring any claim or receive any benefit, including in relation to any event that occurred before you exercised your right of erasure, if our ability to handle the claim has been prejudiced. Your policy terms and conditions set out what will happen in the event your policy is cancelled.

You have the right to ask us to erase your personal information in certain circumstances, for example where you withdraw your consent or where the personal information we collected is no longer necessary for the original purpose. This will need to be balanced against other factors however. For example, we may have regulatory and/ or legal obligations which mean we cannot comply with your request.

- The right to restriction of processing ►

In certain circumstances, you are entitled to ask us to stop using your personal information, for example where you think that we no longer need to use your personal information or where you think that the personal information we hold about you may be inaccurate.
