Why choose Rossborough Private Clients?

At Rossborough Private Clients, our wealth of experience means we offer an unrivalled service to our clients. If you would like to benefit from this bespoke offering you can expect:

Relationships

We believe in a relationship of openness and trust. This enables your dedicated broker to provide the appropriate cover from the start and as your needs change.

Expert advice

No claim can be sufficient if possessions aren't correctly valued. Our brokers know which questions to ask to deliver the right level and type of cover. They can also arrange for surveyors and appraisal experts to value property and other major assets, thereby avoiding underinsurance.

A better way to insure the things that matter to you

Cover

Standard policies may fall short on both the type and level of cover available. They are simply not designed to match your lifestyle, and do not take into account the complexity of assets. This can result in underinsurance or complete gaps in cover. The high net worth policies we offer are written on a much wider, more flexible basis rather than adopting a one-size-fits-all approach.

Service

At Rossborough Private Clients we can arrange for a single portfolio that brings all your separate policies into one and deliver a number of extra benefits. This single portfolio approach is flexible and covers everything from cars and boats to the family home, wine cellar, second home and global travel.

Claims

When you come to make a claim, good service is imperative. High net worth insurers excel in this area, as their approach is more understanding, faster and a lot more flexible than standard insurers.
