Making sure that your contents, fine art and jewellery are properly protected and insured when you relocate your family to the Channel Islands needs careful planning and specialist advice. Just as it is important to have the best possible guidance from a tax, legal and accounting perspective, it is essential to have proper advice from insurance brokers who fully understand the implications of the move you are about to make.

Rossborough Private Clients will provide you with cover that reflects your lifestyle and specific relocation requirements. We'll offer you a range of tangible benefits designed to provide you with the peace of mind that comes with choosing the very best.

The decision to relocate to the Channel Islands is a major step, and our knowledge and experience of handling its challenges will ensure a smooth transition.

A better way to insure the things that matter to you

When relocating to the Channel Islands, our experienced team can assist and advise you on a range of issues, including:

- Working with you to ensure that the contents in your UK property are properly insured whilst it is awaiting sale and potentially unoccupied.
- Suggesting appropriate companies to handle and store your assets in the UK pending your relocation.
- Advising on the best shippers and methods of shipment to use when relocating – and recommending coverage that will protect you in the event of items being damaged in transit.
- Working with your insurer to avoid the imposition of restrictive cover for the storage and transit of high value items.
- Using our expertise and connections to select insurers that will provide tailored cover for refurbishments, alterations and the redecoration of your new home.
